Let us know if you need brochures & posters about the classification system for your staff and customers

We have a number of resources designed to help staff and customers understand the meanings of the classifications labels on games and DVDs. In the lead up to the busy Christmas season, email or phone us to find out more about our resources and order a supply for your store. All resources are provided free of charge.

More information

If you have any questions or would like more information about anything in this newsletter, please contact us.
