

Censorship Information for Libraries No. 21 October 2009

Welcome to the library newsletter from the Office of Film and Literature Classification. Feel free to contact us if you have any queries or suggestions for future content (our contact details are on page 2). Please feel free to forward this newsletter to others.

LIANZA conference 2009

Representatives from the Classification Office's Information Unit recently manned a stand at the LIANZA conference. The event was a great success – we enjoyed discussing a wide range of issues relevant to librarians and answering queries about New Zealand's censorship system in general. We handed out hundreds of information packs and over 50 DVD slick resources (see below) to librarians from across New Zealand.

Resources at LIANZA

The following resources were created specifically for this year's LIANZA conference and are available for you to download from the Newsletters and Lianza page in the libraries section of our website at <http://www.censorship.govt.nz/libraries.html>.

Key information for librarians:

This information sheet briefly explains some key points about New Zealand's Censorship system as it relates to libraries.

Information sheet about graphic novels:

This information sheet contains useful information for librarians about the classification of graphic novels.

Flowchart about the labelling of restricted books:

This flowchart outlines the process your library should follow if you have a restricted publication in your collection. This can also be downloaded from the Restricted Publications page in the libraries section of our website.

DVD slick resource:

This DVD case and cover slick is designed to help guide members of the public about the meaning of New Zealand's classification symbols. An enclosed disc contains 3 PDFs like the one shown at right. You can print copies of these PDFs and place them inside empty DVD cases to display on your shelves. If you would like a copy of this resource please email us your library's mailing address.
