Guide to video game labels

Australian labels

Unrestricted

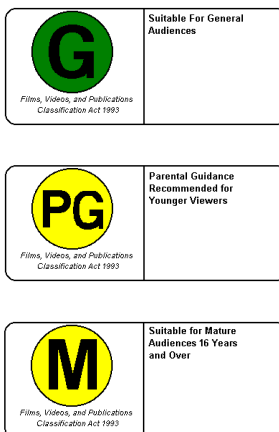

Games with these labels are unrestricted and able to be supplied to, or played by, anyone. They do not need a NZ label. Older labels may appear in black & white.

Restricted – label not for use in NZ

Games with the MA 15+ label are restricted and must be submitted for classification. This label should not appear on games in New Zealand. Older labels may appear in black & white.

New Zealand labels

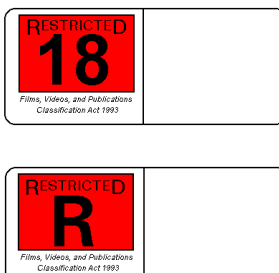

Unrestricted

Games with green or yellow labels are unrestricted and can be supplied to, or played by, anyone.

M-rated games are considered more suitable for people aged over 16 but there is no legal restriction on who can buy or play them.

Restricted

Games with red labels are restricted and can only be supplied to, or played by, people of at least the age specified on the label. The most common age restrictions are 13, 16 and 18.

There may be other restrictions described on the label.
